

Boogie Board Sync:

First impressions

So far the BBS (heh) is the most precise electronic drawing/writing device I've ever used. You can't erase, but that's no different than ink on paper (which I normally use) so that's not a big deal to me. Other than that waiting for the first charge was a drag, but otherwise it's been very cool so far, and I'm excited to use it more and have more to write...
